THEY WENT ON WHEELS.

What Befell a Happy Party That Started For the Country.

Well, wasn't it a picnic!

Saturday morning was Mayday and beautiful, a most inviting day for a spin in the country.

Nor were devotees long in embracing the opportunity.

About 7 o'clock Mrs. J. D. Dye and Mr. Robert Pollitt and his daughter, Mrs. Samuel Holmes, set out on their wheels, the former ticketed for Sardis and the latter two for Mt. Oliver.

All went merry as a cowbell until the party got beyond Murphysville.

There a rainstorm came up—and fortunately so did a buggy.

Into this the party clambered—and three persons rode into Sardis on four wheels, while the Mt. Oliver 'Bus hauled three wheels to that place.

Meantime the rain had subsided and Mr. Pollitt and Mrs. Holmes continued their journey to the capital of Judge Deming.

We wouldn't have said a word about this if we did not know that Mr. Pollitt would be out of town for a week or two.

Y. M. C. A. DOINGS.

Tickets For Mills Lecture and Items of Interest.

Between forty and fifty men were present at the Rally in the Association Hall on Sunday afternoon and listened to an interesting and very impressive talk by State Secretary Roosevelt on the great choice of life and the inestimable good that comes to the man who decides to serve God and his fellow men.

The Rally was closed earlier than usual, in order that those present might attend the funeral of Mr. James Barbour. Before the meeting and immediately following it, Mr. Roosevelt was introduced and given a cordial welcome.

The exchange tickets for the lecture by Rev. B. Fay Mills, which is to occur at the Opera-house next week—Wednesday—are being distributed today among the members and in the stores of the city.

In order that there may be no misunderstanding the Association Committee in charge wish it stated that every seat in the Opera-house is to be reserved, all and all the tickets now being sold must be exchanged for the reserved seat coupons at My Nelson's store on Monday next, or any time between Monday and Wednesday, the date of the lecture.

As the Association, in providing this lecture, is not seeking primarily to make money, but rather to give the people of our city an opportunity to meet and hear the most prominent and highly successful Evangelist of today, it is, therefore, expected that our citizens will show their appreciation of the Association's efforts by securing Mr. Mills by attending the lecture in such numbers as to fill every seat and crowd the Opera-house.

FINAL TRIBUTES.

SERVICES IN MEMORY OF THE LATE JAMES BARBOUR.

The remains of the Hon. James Barbour reached this city from Clifton Springs, N. Y., at 1:30 Saturday afternoon and were at once taken to his late residence at the Bank of Mayville.

During the afternoon, evening and throughout yesterday the familiar face was viewed by hundreds who had loved him in life and who now revere his memory.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the body was borne to the First Presbyterian Church, where impressive religious rites were held, his Pastor, the Rev. John S. Hays, D. D., being assisted by the Rev. W. O. Cochran of the Central Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Hays spoke with deep feeling of the extended and intimate relations that had existed between Mr. Barbour and himself, and deplored the loss that both community and Church had sustained by his death. He briefly reviewed the public services of deceased, and made an eloquent appeal to young men to fit themselves for the places that had so recently been made vacant by the loss of such representative citizens as Wadsworth, Cochran, Cartmell and Barbour. Several times the speaker was visibly affected, and it was with great difficulty that he restrained his emotions.

The Oddfellows, to the number of about 130, escorted the body to the Church, and at the conclusion of the services they returned with it to the residence.

The pallbearers were Messrs. A. M. J. Cochran, M. C. Russell, James Smith, James Barbour Russell, C. M. Plaster, N. Cooper, Robert A. Cochran and R. K. Hoeft.

The remains were taken at 5:30 this morning via the L. and N. to Danville, accompanied by the Rev. L. G. Barbour of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. J. Foster Barbour of this city, Rev. and Mrs. John Barbour of Birmingham, Ala., Miss Mary Alter Barbour and Messrs. James and George Barbour of this city.

The interment will take place in the Danville Cemetery this afternoon.

Peace to his ashes!

ACTION OF THE MASON BAR.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Sept. 19th, 1896.

At a meeting of the members of the Bar of Mason County, held on this day at the Courthouse to take action relative to the death of Hon. James Barbour, a member of said Bar, on motion Judge Emery Whitaker was chosen Chairman and George W. Sulser Secretary of the meeting.

On motion, Thomas A. Respass, Judge G. S. Wall, E. L. Worthington and John G. Hickman were appointed to prepare suitable resolutions of respect, with instructions to have the same published in the newspapers of the city, a copy furnished to the family of the deceased and report said resolutions to the Mason Circuit Court and Mason County Court at their next November term.

ENEMY WHITAKER, Chairman.

George W. Sulser, Secretary.

WHEREAS, The members of the Mason Bar and the officers of the Mason Circuit and County Courts have learned with profound sorrow of the death of our esteemed associate, James Barbour, who has been suddenly cut down in the maturity of manhood and usefulness; therefore,

Resolved, That we, his brother members of the Mason Circuit and County Courts, have met on this mournful occasion to render to our deceased brother a last and well merited tribute of our respect for his memory. Just and upright in all things, his walk in life was peaceful and unassuming, virtuous and dignified, and we are at a loss which most to admire—his unswerving urbanity as a gentleman, his ability as a lawyer or his irreproachable and exalted character as a man.

Resolved, That as his daily associates and friends in social and professional life we most deeply deplore his loss, and feel that one of the worthiest citizens in our land has been stricken in the midst of his usefulness, and one of the ornaments of our profession has departed forever.

Resolved, That we most sincerely sympathize with his bereaved family and relatives, and respectfully offer them the testimony of our condolence.

Resolved, That a copy of the proceed-is always open. A watch must keep time as a train must keep the track. If your watch don't keep time bring it here and we will make it right to smallest part of a second. When a watch leaves our hospital to renew its duel with Time its seconds must be reliable, and we make them so in every case. When a watch runs even with time it's ahead. Ours are;—so are our Clocks and entire stock of Jewelry, Silverware, &c.,—ahead of competition.

TELLER'S TALK AT ASHLAND.

It Was a Freely Reception For the Late Republican.

A special from Ashland says the Free-silver Democratic hosts failed most signally Saturday in scoring the tremendous success that had been expected, as owing to the inclement weather, and possibly to the dying cause in which their efforts were enlisted, the attendance at the several speeches was distressingly small.

It is placing a liberal limit on the figures to say that there were two thousand visitors in the city, and of these less than a thousand heard Senator Teller, owing to the rain that forced the speaking to be held in the Opera-house instead of Central Park as planned.

In the competitive drill of the Uniform Rank K. of P. at Covington, the first prize of $150 was awarded to Friendship Division No. 35 of Covington, Captain J. A. Brownfield. Captain Brownfield was also awarded a prize of $12.50 for being the best Company commander. Captain B. is a former Mayville man, which explains it all.

October 10th—Cambridge, O.

October 11th—Dayton, O.

The week of the 12th to the 18th is still open. Cities and towns in either of the three states desiring time in that week should address Manager Bancroft at once.

Here's Mayville's chance to show those people that we still have a good club, and Manager Cox should fill in a date.

In case there should be a hitch between the two as to a game here, the Reds are after a team to play against them at the Cincinnati Park on October 4th. The game will be in a measure a benefit affair. Every dollar that comes in at the gate, except, of course, "the bit" of the extra team, will go to the Cincinnati players. They expect to get a new suit and winter overcoat out of the receipts.

EXILE SOLDIER PAROLED.

Shot the Man Who Ruined His Home Thirty Years Ago.

Lieutenant Governor Worthington, Acting Governor, pardoned William Nathaniel of Grayson, indicted for murder in October, 1866. Following is the indorsement written on the pardon:

"The accused was a soldier and officer in the Federal Army in the War of the Rebellion. While he was away from home doing battle for his country, his wife was betrayed by one Stephens, who, on the return of accused from the army, publicly boasted of his acts and taunted the accused with having despoiled his home. Thereupon the accused shot and killed Stephens. This was more than thirty years ago. An indictment was returned against Nathaniel for the killing, accusing him of murder, whereupon he fled Kentucky and has never been apprehended. All the county officials, ask that he be pardoned. He is now an old man; has been away from home the best part of his life. He now desires to return to his native county and view the graves of his parents and the scenes of childhood before dying. I do not think he should be punished for the killing, even with the chance of trials. His banishment has been a greater punishment than his act merited."

An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years ago, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were sold here, stating if they were not she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them." The medicines referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of cold and cough; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the side and chest, and Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. These medicines have been in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people have learned that they are articles of great worth and merit, and are not unsatisfied with any other. They are for sale here by J. James Wood, Druggist.

KENTUCKY NEWS.

The Latest News From All Parts of the Commonwealth.

LARGE APPLE TREE.

It Measures Three Feet Seven Inches Through and is Upwards of 75 Feet High.

SEBASTIAN, Ky., Sept. 21.—The largest tree in the Kentucky mountains can be seen on the farm of Jacob L. Webb, a prosperous old farmer here. The tree was planted by Webb himself nearly sixty years ago, and to-day it looks to be a mammoth poplar or walnut, and still bears a large quantity of fruit. It measures 10 1/2 feet around, 3 feet 7 inches through, and is upward of 75 feet high. Last year nearly 300 bushels of the finest apples were gathered from its massive limbs, and it has a good supply this year. On the same farm there are several other large apple trees, ranging in size from 1 1/2 to 3 feet through, and from 8 to 10 feet through, and a visitor would think he struck a deep forest.

A Spider's Bite.

NICHOLASVILLE, Ky., Sept. 21.—Engineer G. W. Worman of Livingston, was bitten by a spider of the ordinary species. At first he paid no attention to the bite, thinking that it would amount to nothing serious, but now he is of a different opinion. ### Held for Robbery.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 21.—A. H. Anderson, claiming Chicago as his home, was brought over to the grand jury by Judge Jewell to answer a charge of robbery. ### Kentucky's Big Corn Crop.

RICHMOND, Ky., Sept. 21.—The corn crop of Central Kentucky is being enormous this year, and already it is being offered at 50 cents a barrel, which is probably the lowest price it has ever reached in this section. One prominent farmer has offered to crib 2,000 barrels at that price.

An Increase in Freight Rates.

THE REBELS.

Capture a Monastery at Cavite, Philippine Islands,

And Massacred the Monks, Putting Them to Death With Knives.

One Hundred Rebels Flung Into a Small Dungeon by Spaniards—Next Morning 84 of the Prisoners Found Dead, Having Been Suffocated.

MADRID, Sept. 21.—A dispatch to the Imperialist, from Hong Kong, says that the rebels at Cavite, Philippine islands, captured the monastery there and massacred the monks, putting them to death with knives. Spanish warships afterwards started a bombardment of the rebel position, but the shots fell short and no harm was done to the insurgents.

The dispatch adds that over a hundred rebels who had been captured by Spaniards were flung into a small dungeon at Manila. The next morning 84 of the prisoners were found dead, having been suffocated during the night. The Spaniards, with the object of striking terror among the sympathizers of the rebels, make it a practice to execute prisoners publicly. The men are taken out in batines and are now swollen to twice its ordinary size. It is probable that his entire system is poisoned and the physicians are alarmed over his condition.

The dispatch further says that the rebels are making headway in the interior. HAVANA, Sept. 20.—Capt. Gen. Weyler has ordered the release of Alfred O. Hernandez Huguett, an American man who was arrested two weeks ago. His release is conditional upon his leaving Cuba. Benvido Sanchez, a rebel leader has been captured in Mantanzas. He is wounded.

Water Brown, Who Clubbed Mrs. Slayden, Shot and Cremated.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 21.—At Slayden's Crossing, Miss., between Lamar, Miss., and Grand Junction, Tenn., Water Brown, a young Negro, was shot to death and then burned. He made a murderous assault upon Mrs. Slayden, postmistress, aged 73, late Saturday evening. Brown dined Mrs. Slayden for a small sum of money which she is supposed to have owed him.

She told him to look in a bureau drawer and get it. Finding $10 in the drawer, the Negro struck the woman on the head with a bludgeon, fracturing her skull. He at once fled, taking the money with him. His victim was discovered shortly after, almost unconscious. She died in a few minutes. The story of the assault.

Three different parties were at once organized, some of the members being colored men and the others white. At an early hour Sunday morning Brown was captured near Grand Junction and taken back to the scene of the crime, where he was promptly identified. His captors riddled him with lead and afterward piled wool about the body and burned it.

SCUDAN EXPEDITION.

The Derivishes Outwitted by the English—They Are Unable to Slip Past the Gunboats.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—The correspondent of the Daily News, who is with the London contingent, today writes a very favorable article on the Derivishes. The attack on El Hafir, the Derivishes were outwitted. They all advanced on land to meet the troops, thus permitting the gunboats to slip past the town, sink one of their steamers and hurry on to Dongola. When the Derivishes saw the move they turned and tried to overtake the gunboats and have Dongola, but the land forces of the expedition headed them off.

The Derivishes, however, will follow the gunboats to Dongola, and thus the Derivishes will be placed between two fires. Ahabash, the leader of the Derivishes, was wounded at El Hafir. He was carried outside the range of the guns, but when he was taken he said that he was defeated he exclaimed: "Allah is against me."
